

The Regina Midget Baseball program objective is simple: To provide every midget player in the City of Regina with the opportunity to play baseball under one unified structure. Here's how we accomplish this:

1. Regina Midget Baseball Council

- The Regina Midget Baseball Council (RMBC), which manages the midget baseball program for Regina, was formed in the spring of 2006.

2. Coaching Selection

- The RMBC will review coaching applications for the 2008 season and AAA coaches will be selected prior to the end of December 2007. AA coaches will be selected as early as possible in 2008.

3. *IMPORTANT  PLAYER EVALUATIONS  NOTE DATES**

Player evaluations for 2008 season are scheduled for September 22/23 and 29/30, 2007 at Optimist Park. ALL PLAYERS, WHETHER INTENDING ON PLAYING A, AA OR AAA MUST ATTEND THE EVALUATIONS. These aid in the drafting of the teams at all levels. Once registered, players will be contacted with their specific evaluation date and time.

4. Team Formation

- Teams will be formed by means of a citywide draft.
- For purposes of the draft as well as regular season and league playoffs, one of the four AAA teams will be designated as a Little League (LL) team.
- All players must indicate which post season playoff they would prefer to participate in, namely Senior/Big League All Star Play or SBA post season play. PLAYERS CANNOT PARTICIPATE IN BOTH.
- Senior/Big League All-Star playoffs include Regionals, Canadians and World Series.
- Saskatchewan Baseball Association (SBA) playoffs include Zones, Provincials, Westerns or Nationals.
- Players that are drafted to the LL team are not guaranteed a spot on the post-season All-Star team rosters.
- All teams will play in the Prairie Midget Baseball League. Numerous out-of-town teams participate in this league and therefore travel will be expected of all midget teams

5. Registration Fees

- 2008 registration fee will be $250.00 per player playing AAA or AA. A fees to be determined.
- A minimum of $50.00 must accompany this registration form with the balance of $200.00 to be paid upon being drafted to a team. No player will receive a uniform until full payment is received.
- (Refer to refund policy on back page)

6. Play in Provincial and National competitions

- Please refer to agreement located at www.reginamidgetbaseball.ca

Vision

- Develop one of the best & strongest midget-aged baseball programs.
- Build a large foundation of midget-aged baseball players by keeping as many midget-aged players playing the sport and advancing into the Regina Junior Baseball program.
- Establish a baseball system that allows as many players as possible to play at a level where they can compete against players of similar caliber.
- Form as many midget teams as possible and play in the best leagues at the appropriate level.
- Give players in Regina the best coaching and provide developmental and training opportunities all year long.
- Provide as many players as possible with as many opportunities as possible to compete for provincial, regional and national championships.

What to expect as a player at the AAA level:

- On the diamond at least 5 times a week (combination of games and practices)
- Participate in a minimum of 3 tournaments
- A practice commitment implemented by coach
- Out of town travel to league games

What to expect as a player at the AA/A level:

- Commitment level may be less than above
